VII. Additional Provisions for Business Customers Only

Security Procedures

By using our Online Banking Services, you acknowledge and agree that the security procedures for electronic banking transactions set forth herein are commercially reasonable. You agree to be bound by instructions, whether authorized or unauthorized, which we implement in compliance with these procedures, unless you have given us prior notice of possible unauthorized use, and we had a reasonable opportunity to act on such notice.

You are responsible for connectivity and Internet service fees you incur with your use of the Service.

VII. Additional Provisions for Consumer Accounts Only

Liability for Unauthorized Use (Consumers/Personal Accounts Only)

Tell us at once if you believe your Online Banking password has been compromised or if someone has transferred or may transfer money from your account without your permission. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all of the money in your account.

Also, if your statement shows any electronic funds transfers that you did not make or authorize, notify us at once. If you do not notify us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time. If a good reason kept you from telling us, we may, at our sole discretion, extend the time periods.

If you authorize someone else to use your Access ID and password, you are responsible for all transactions which that person initiates at any time, even if the amount of the transaction or number of transactions exceeds what you authorize.

In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Funds Transfers

In case of errors or questions about your electronic funds transfers ("EFTs"), or if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about an EFT listed on your account statement or receipt, contact us in the manner stated in the How to Reach Us section of this Agreement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we have sent the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared. We will need you to provide us the following information.

1. Your name and account number
2. Description of the error or the transfer you are unsure about, explaining as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information,
3. Dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us verbally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within 10 Business Days.

We will determine whether an error occurred within 10 Business Days (20 Business Days for new accounts) after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 days (90 days for new accounts) to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will provisionally credit your account within 10 Business Days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive your letter within 10 Business Days, we reserve the right to not provisionally credit your account.

We will tell you the results within 3 Business Days after completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

You are responsible for connectivity and Internet service fees you incur with your use of the Service.
